

LAKE ERIE WATER LEVELS (1918-2019)

The chart shows over 100 years of monthly mean water level data, collected from Lake Erie from 1918 to 2019. The data shows that the last record-high water level event was in June 1986 at 175.04m. On June 25, 2019 the water levels were recorded at 175.18m which is 14cm higher than the record-high set in 1986.

Kettle Creek
Conservation Authority